FRESHMEN 0, SOPHOMORES 0.

Underclass Football Supremacy Not Decided.

Contrary to all expectations, the annual freshman-sophomore football game ended in a 0-0 tie. The freshmen had confidently expected an easy victory, founding their hopes on Hudson, Lawlor, Moore, Sage and Lennox, all members of the 'Varsity' squad. Collett was the only 'Varsity' man playing for the sophomores, though Woodbury was a first team man last year.

The freshmen knew Collett by reputation, and gave him little or no chance to distinguish himself. Woodbury and L'Heureux were always in the game, both on the offence and defence. Woodbury time after time broke through the freshman line and got his man before the play was well under way. He also was good at making long gains. L'Heureux made a specialty of getting Hudson, and warmed the hearts of his classmates by his brilliant tackles. His line plunging was also a feature. For the freshmen, Hudson showed his speed and knowledge of the game, while Sage excelled in distance kicking and all-round playing.

The game was a farce to the spectators. In the first quarter, the sophomores by straight football brought the ball down to the freshman ten-yard line when time was called. In the second quarter, the ball went up and down the field until finally the sophomores worked the ball down to the freshman two-yard line, when the half ended. This seemed a strange coincidence to the spectators.

Beginning with the third quarter, the freshmen began to show their ability. During this period, they held the sophomores down, playing a purely defensive game. In the last quarter, the freshmen, by line plunging and end runs, carried the ball to the sophomores' five-yard line, where the game ended. This kind of period ending had begun to be a habit.

The game was an example of old-time football, a straight rushing game being played throughout. Two forward passes were tried by the sophomores, one of which succeeded. There was a scarcity of fumbles, a thing which rarely happens in a game of this kind.

The line-up follows:

Sophomores.	Freshmen.
Marr l. e.	Ramsey
Withington l. t. . . .	Lawlor
Smith l. g.	Wessels, Leland
C. Ward c.	Wroth
Williams r. g. . . .	Story, Bassford
E. Ward r. t. . . .	Smith
J. B. Moore r. g. . . .	Elder
Deppen g. b.	Sage
Collett r. h. b. . . .	Baridon
L'Heureux l. h. b. . .	J. A. Moore
Woodbury f. b. . . .	Hudson
Referee, Howell, '12; umpire, "Pop" Sutton; field judge, Gildersleeve, '11.

Y. M. C. A. MEN DINE.

Informal Dinner at Hotel Garde Last Night.

An informal dinner was given to the members of the new Trinity branch of the Intercollegiate Y. M. C. A. at the Garde Hotel yesterday evening, by a friend of the association, who is interested in the success of the branch here. The purpose of the dinner was to effect the permanent organization of the branch. Those present were: Mr. E. C. Carter, Secretary-General of the Y. M. C. A.; Mr. Pontius, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of New England; Dr. Flavel S. Luther, Prof. Cranston Brenton, Mr. W. B. Briggs, Dr. I. T. Beckwith, formerly professor at Trinity; and the following men from the college body: Harrian, '05; Buck, '11; S. P. Haight, '13; Maxon, '11; R. M. Nelson, '11; Jacquith, '11; Ramsdell, '11; Sherman, '11; Rosebaugh, '11; Howell, '12; Barnes, '12; Short, '12; Rankin, '12; Carpenter, '12; H. Wesels, '12; Needham, '12; Barnett, '13; J. B. Moore, '13; E. T. Smith, '13; C. W. Sayres, '13; A. P. Sayres, '13; Swift, '13; Thomas, '13; Whitehead, '13; Borchert, '14; J. A. Moore, '14; Moses, '14; Wroth, '14; Ramsay, '14.

Sherman, '11, acted as toastmaster and introduced Howell, '12, president of the branch, as the first speaker. Howell's remarks took the form of a report on the progress of the organization work, and he closed by expressing the thanks of the body to those who had aided in founding the branch. Jacquith, '11, local secretary, spoke of the work that the association had laid out for its members, especially in the juvenile courts. Mr. Carter made an enthusiastic address in which he mentioned the fact that one of the Boston papers had ranked Trinity tenth among the colleges of America in football, and he hoped to see Trinity rank as high in the association work. S. P. Haight, '11, urged the necessity of the utmost sincerity and frankness in the attitude the association is to adopt toward the rest of the college. Mr. Pontius advised the members to miss no opportunity of visiting other branches and studying their methods. The last speaker was Doctor Luther, who expressed his intense enthusiasm for the movement, and illustrated the necessity of forming ideals in the future and not in the past. He also outlined several ways in which the association could do valuable work.

Trinity songs were interspersed between the various events on the program, and the meeting closed with "Neath the Elms."

BASKETBALL PROSPECTS.

Team Plays Columbia on Friday.

With the first game only four days off the basketball prospects at present look very hazy. With only two of last year's regular men left on the team, a few new men of unknown quality and only a week of practice, the team will be up against a hard proposition when it faces Columbia next Friday night, and is sure to come home with the small end of the score.

Captain Gildersleeve and Ramsdell are the two veterans on the team. Dissell and Horan, who will very likely play in the first game, were substitutes last year but neither of them have had any experience against the big college teams. Sage, who is the most promising new man, has never played under college rules.

The team is at present in very rough shape, due to lack of practice, but now that the season is fairly started Captain Gildersleeve will keep his men working hard and expects to turn out a creditable team.

SMOKER PLANS PROGRESSING.

December 9 Tentative Date For Football Celebration.

The football team, manager and coach, will be the guests of the college body at an informal "Dutch" smoker to be held at Bond's rathskellar, probably on Friday evening, December 9. Chairman Short is at work on a program that should attract a large and enthusiastic gathering of undergraduates and alumni. The Glee Club has promised to furnish a quartet and brief addresses will be made by the various luminaries of the football firmament.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT.

Creditable Performance at Collinsville.

The Trinity College Glee Club gave their second concert of the season before a fair sized audience at Collinsville last Tuesday night. The club lacked six of the regular members, and their absence was felt, but due to the rehearsals held during the preceding weeks the concert was of much higher class than the first one which was given in Tariffville two weeks ago.

As in the previous concert the features were the solos by Whitehead, '13, pianologues by Rosenbaum, '14, and mandolin solos by Baridon, '14, but the work of the club was also very fair, two numbers, "Amirci" and "De Coppah Moon," being especially pleasing.

It is a safe thing to say that if the club continues the good work that it has done so far the Junior Week concert will be one well worth coming miles to hear.

1912 IVY IN PREPARATION.

Board Plans Many Improvements in Annual.

The 1912 Ivy board is at work in earnest on the annual, which will appear about May 1. A number of innovations are planned, which will make the book a decided novelty.

The class has voted an assessment of three dollars on its membership, which will pay for the individual cuts and a copy of the Ivy for each junior. The board requests that these assessments be paid to the class treasurer before the Christmas recess, so that the cuts can be ordered promptly.

Randall is the official photographer this year, and arrangements for sittings should be made at once. A deposit of one dollar is required as usual, which will apply on any orders the individual may place for pictures.

Alumni Communications.

To the Editor of The Tripod:—

I have read with interest a communication in the issue of November 18 of The Tripod from Mr. Sidney G. Fisher, and it pleases me to find that there is an entire agreement between at least one member of the class of '79 and one of the class of '53 upon the subject of athletics as applied to football. I have been afraid to say all that I have thought about this matter, feeling that an expression of opinion from a graduate nearly sixty years out of college would be considered that of an old fogey by those of later years, and by the whole college body. I have been a subscriber to The Tripod on general principles, to show my interest in the college. But the page after page of athletic doings have had no charms and it seemed to me as if all the college stood for was for sport. We had football when I was a freshman, but it was between the four classes, two on a side. No "rooters" or grand stand. All got the exercise.

I can add nothing to the communication of Mr. Fisher, and hope that some of his recommendations may be adopted.

(Signed) LOUIS FRENCH, '53.

To the Editor of The Tripod:—

Enclosed please find check. Please apply same to my subscription for this year and apply surplus to sending paper to some preparatory school. I am sorry more of our alumni are not on your subscription list. The Tripod is a most vital factor, in my judgment, in the work of building up the college, and in this work, every alumnus owes a duty, and I do not see how he can better and more intelligently aid in the work of the college than by receiving the college news through the year. Don't lose heart in your good work.

Very cordially yours,

(Signed)

JOS. BUFFINGTON, '75.

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

The Christmas recess will begin at 1 p. m. Thursday, December 22, and will last two weeks.

It has been brought to the notice of The Tripod that a number of students desire to leave on the preceding Saturday, thus extending the vacation by five days. With this in view they have been regular in attendance at classes, chapel and church, and have a balance of allowed absences sufficient to permit such a prolongation of the recess. But the old bugbear, the possibility of assigned tests in that week, is hiding behind a post, ready to leap out and break up their plans with a menacing flourish of its stuffed club.

Now it is true of many of us that the Christmas recess is the one opportunity of going home during the entire college year. Some students are obliged to spend a considerable portion of it on the train. To such as have been far-sighted enough to economize their cuts the faculty should offer no hindrance to a fair vacation.

Nearly three weeks remain in which the various professors may hold their tests, and there seems to be no adequate reason why one of those four days, viz., from December 19 to 22, should be chosen for such compulsory attendance. Every professor who abstains therefrom will be rewarded by a silent vote of thanks from his students, their families and their friends.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

Rarely do we meet an alumnus who does not complain of the paucity of alumni notes in The Tripod. This is a source of regret to the board, and a fault we would only too gladly correct. But our sources of information are limited to the newspapers and occasional communications from graduates. There are countless items of interest that never appear in the newspapers, however, and we urge upon all Tripod subscribers that they favor us with letters about themselves or others from time to time. By so doing they will confer a great favor upon the board and upon the readers of this paper.

THE LABOR PROBLEM IN ENGLAND.

Mr. Edward Porritt, lecturer at Harvard and other universities, will deliver a lecture on the labor problem in England to-night at the Socialist Party hall, 235 Asylum street, under the auspices of the Peoples' University. The lecture will deal largely with the rise and growth of the National labor party, and with trade-unionism.

Mr. Porritt is recognized as one of the chief authorities on English politics. His lecture at Trinity last winter on the Lloyd George budget will be remembered by those who had the pleasure of hearing it.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Return.

President and Mrs. Luther returned last Saturday from a three weeks' vacation in Atlantic City. The President's summer vacation had to be foregone on account of the Chinese conferences and various administrative duties, as a result of which his health was seriously impaired. During his absence, Dr. McCook, as senior professor, was acting executive.

Ramsdell and Cook.

The New York Sun, in its all-American selections, places Ramsdell at half back on the second eleven and rates Cook close to Sprackling of Brown and Howe of Yale for the quarter back position.

Sunday Chapel Service.

Mr. Pontius, Secretary of the New England Intercollegiate Y. M. C. A., made an address last Sunday at the morning service on the two-fold purpose of the Y. M. C. A., namely, to get in touch with men, and then to come into closer touch with God. At the close of the address, a quartet composed of Wroth, '14, first tenor; Whitehead, '13, second tenor; Fort, '14, first bass, and Bateman, '12, second bass, sang the hymn "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All." A new Te Deum was also sung by the choir, with solo parts by Wroth, Bateman and Fort.

Next Friday's Tripod will contain a full review of the football season, and a criticism of the work of the individual players. Orders for extra copies should be placed before the issue goes to press.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?
Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster
and yourself against dependency
in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities,
and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares,
and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut
Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
